Our Host Institution

The Southern University and A&M College System has a rich tradition of educating students from under-represented backgrounds and championing both human rights and environmental sustainability. In addition, it is the only historically black university system in America.

The System has a diverse enrollment of more than 12,000 students with locations in Louisiana's capital city of Baton Rouge as well as in New Orleans and Shreveport. The law school and agricultural and research center are located on the Baton Rouge campus. The System campuses appeal to students with various undergraduate, graduate, and professional degree offerings, and each separate campus has its own identity, each is focused on providing a high-quality education that is both affordable and accessible to all.

The Southern University Law Center's (SULC) mission and tradition is to "provide access and opportunity to a diverse group of students from underrepresented racial, ethnic, and socio-economic groups to obtain a high-quality legal education with training in both civil and common law" and to equip a cadre of lawyers with the skills necessary for the practice of law and for positions of leadership in society. The Law Center was founded by the Louisiana State Board of Education in 1946, in response to a lawsuit brought by Charles Hatfield, an African American Louisiana resident who had been denied admission to Louisiana State University's law school. Since that time, the Law Center's graduates have included civil rights attorneys, political leaders, and educators who have spread across the U.S. as trailblazers in the legal profession, securing equal rights for others. From the original 1950 graduating class of 5 attorneys, the Law Center's current enrollment spans to over 900 students. More judges sitting on Louisiana's trial court benches have graduated from Southern University Law Center than from any of the other 3 law schools in Louisiana.

Program

Important Information for ALL Attendees

This is a hybrid conference: some presentations are in person, others are on Zoom. Each Session will consist of 3 different simultaneous panels. Panels A and B have a combination of in-person and zoom participants, Panels C consist entirely of Zoom participants. A, B, and C panels have consistently the same link. Thus all participants can watch all presentations simply via the links provided, but in-person participants can watch by going physically to the SULC classrooms where Panels A and B are being held. A panels will always use the same link (which is the same as the Keynote Speech link); B panels will always use the same link, and C panels will always use the same link.

The wonderful thing about this year's conference is that we have participants from all over the world, many of them virtual. That is also a difficult thing, schedule-wise. The times given are U.S. Central time (the same as Chicago), so if you are participating virtually, calculate your time carefully!

Because we have attendees from Asia, Africa, Europe, Central America, South America, and North America, it would be impossible to schedule panels at times that are convenient for all, though we have done our best to schedule with compassion while maintaining coherence and collegiality so that you will enjoy exchanging information with colleagues working on similar topics elsewhere in the world, and will still be able to sit in on other panels that interest you.

In Person Participants

The Capitol Hilton is providing Shuttle transportation to and from both the Baton Rouge airport and Southern U. Law Center, the latter as a courtesy.

Shuttles from Baton Rouge Hilton to Southern U. Law Center and back are limited and depart PROMPTLY on time

Wednesday Morning 8:00 a.m., 8:45 a.m.
Wednesday evening 8:30 pm and 9:00 p.m.
Thursday morning: 7:30 and 8:15
Thursday afternoon 4:00 pm and 4:30 p.m.

Baton Rouge has very limited public transportation. If you miss the Conference shuttles, you will have to make your own arrangements to get to Southern University's campus.

Certificate of Attendance

Anyone who has paid their registration and attends the conference will receive a certificate of attendance; those who present will receive a certificate of presentation, and those who moderate will receive a certificate that they moderated.

Time Limits and Protocol

The moderator quickly introduces each presenter, then each presenter has 20 minutes for the presentation, leaving 10-15 minutes at the end for questions, which can be submitted via chat or a raised hand.

Attire

Attire, whether you are participating in person or virtually, is Business Casual. In-Person Participants: Louisiana's climate is hot and humid, though June is not as oppressive as July and August. Short thunder showers are common. Be aware, however, that all buildings are highly air conditioned, so bring a sweater or summer-weight jacket.

Virtual Attendees

Be sure to put your full name and country as your identifier when you register with Zoom so that the other attendees to that Panel know you are present.

Things to do in Baton Rouge, Louisiana

1. In the Immediate Downtown Area (i.e. walking distance from the hotel)

tel)

of nice restaurants – just Google (but save your splurge for New Orleans)

USS Kidd Veterans Museum: Tour a Destroyer that saw two world wars

Old State Capitol: interesting architecture, now a museum that educates on Louisiana's political history

Louisiana Arts and Science Museum

Shaw Center for the Arts: includes LSU's Art Museum and LSU's school of Art Glassell Gallery

Tsumani Restaurant: at the top of the Shaw building, the restaurant gives a nice view of the Mississippi River and Baton Rouge's bridges – a nice place for a cocktail

2. Within 20 minute drive

Rural Life Museum: Very interesting museum that provides a step back in time to experience the rural lives of ordinary Louisianians during the 18th and 19th centuries, including slaves and Acadian, German, and other immigrants.

3. Within 1 hour drive

Various antebellum plantations along the Mississippi River, going south towards New Orleans on River Road
